

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Several people have contributed towards my doctoral study at the University of Zululand. First, I am indebted to the Almighty God, who begun the good work in me and also made sure that I completed it in time. I would like to express my sincere appreciation to my supervisors, Prof. D.N. Ocholla and Prof. M. Adigun for their guidance, compelling attitudes and financial support that was freely accorded to me from the respective departments. Without the support of these two individuals, this work would not have been possible.

My profound gratitude goes to my employer Moi University for granting me study leave to pursue further education in South Africa. I am also indebted to my family and friends whose prayers and support have kept me going especially during trying moments.

My sincere appreciation go to the following individuals: Ms Manana Monareng Communications Officer, National Community Radio Forum; Mr. Noah Lusaka, Programs Manager, ALIN-EA; Ms Elizabeth Araujo of Women'sNet; Mr. Dennis Ochieng, Programs Manager Afriafya; Mr. Mackay, former Director, Protective Services Unit- Unizul, Mr. U.Z. Mathenjwa, Protective Services Unit – Unizul; The Director, Communications Commission of Kenya; The Director, African Regional Center for Computing (ARCC); Mrs Sharon Johnson, Cellular Consultant, Nashua Mobile.

My special thanks also go to my colleagues and friends Mabel Majanja, Joseph Kiplagat, Stephen Migiro, James Matovu, Peter Ocholla, Blessing Mbatha, Petros Dlamini, Bosire Onyancha , Dorothy Njiraine and Veli Jiyane Their invaluable ideas and inspiration made this work worthwhile. My gratitude goes to members of the Department of Library and Information Sciences University of Zululand, Dr. J Mostert, Dr Dube, Prof. Le Roux and Mr. N. Evans, for their professional contributions during my academic program.

I am most grateful to my husband and extended family for their excellent support and patience in bearing with me during my long absence from home. My gratitude also goes to mother, brothers and sisters for their support and encouragement.